INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDERS.

Scientific men, who thoroughly understand the subject, concur with great unanimity in saying that nothing exerts such a deleterious influence against health as bad bread. The remedy is at hand in SIMPSON'S INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDERS, the value of which is thus certified:

RALEIGH, Aug. 24, 1866.

I have tested the Yeast Powders you manufacture and can recommend them as vastly superior to any other ever used by me. In addition to the lightness and sweetness of the bread, the powders are economical, as one-third the lard usually required will answer in the making of either loaf bread or biscuit. For pastries and cakes they are excellent.

VIRGINIA A. ORR.

The price of these powders per package is 25 cts. or 75 cts. per pound. To be had at Wm. Simpson's Confectionary Store, Fayetteville Street, Raleigh, N. C.

RALEIGH, Aug. 23, 1866.

This is to certify that I have used Mr. Simpson's Yeast Powders and find them to be superior to any I have ever used. After trying them once no housekeeper will be satisfied without them.

THE SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, } Editors.
SEATON GALES. }

Tuesday Evening, Nov. 27, 1866.

The Howard Amendment.

Mr. Logan, of Rutherford, inflicted upon the House on yesterday a long, dull speech in favor of the adoption of the Constitutional amendment proposed by Congress. He certainly had no expectation of its passage, but desired to deliver himself of the burden, which doubtless had been weighing upon him for some time. We hope he feels better, and that when he has occasion to address the House again, he will be able to do so with greater facility and vivacity. We learn that two or three of the sixteen who voted against its reference, did not design to endorse the amendment, and will vote against it, when the question comes up directly.

We shall not trouble the reader with a review of Mr. Logan's remarks on the occasion, as they were simply a rehash of the positions generally taken by its advocates, and which have been met and refuted repeatedly. We learn that Mr. Logan stated that the amendment was presented to the States by Congress, as the condition precedent to the admission and restoration of the Southern States. As evidence of this, we learn he stated, that soon after the passage of the Constitutional amendment, the Congress passed a bill or resolution declaring that so soon as those States lately in rebellion adopted it, they would be restored, &c., and that therefore Tennessee passed the amendment, and was admitted. Mr. L. is either ignorant of the facts or misstates them. Such a resolution or bill was offered, but it was rejected by a decided majority. So far from the leaders in Congress regarding the amendment as a condition of restoration, Mr. Thad. Stevens and others declared the contrary, and insisted that there were other enabling acts necessary, and that nothing short of negro suffrage in addition to the amendment would be satisfactory.

Northern Passion.

The New York Herald and Times appear to be terribly fretted at the Southern people, because they so unanimously oppose the Howard amendment. The Herald threatens us with another war or perfect subjugation to military rule for our obstinancy. If these two papers represent Northern sentiment, it will require more astuteness and penetration than we possess, to tell what that is. The Congress submitted the Constitutional amendment to the State Legislatures on its own merits alone, and the Southern people after a careful consideration of it, will reject it on its own merits alone.—Where is the contumacy or the stubbornness? The Herald proposes now the condition of a general and universal amnesty with universal negro suffrage, to be forced on us by 150,000 bayonets. That is free government in a republic with a vengeance. Bad as the Herald's proposition is, without the bayonets, we tell the Herald and the Times it is better than the Howard amendment. We want the Union under the Constitution, with the old government intact. We want no consolidation—no increase of the powers of Congress or the Executive. They have enough!

The Last Battle.

The question having been mooted, who fought the last battle in the late unfortunate war, and it having been claimed by several, we state upon good authority, for the truth of history, that the last battle for "the lost cause," east of the Mississippi, was fought by Col. Jas. R. Love, of Jackson, the Senator from the 50th District.

This battle was fought on the 17th of April 1865, at Mill Creek, McDowell County, N. C., and was a success to the Confederates, delaying Gen. Gilliam in his advance on Asheville, then the headquarters of the Military District known as the Western District of North Carolina, and causing him to take a more circuitous route to that place. Col. Love, with his forces, marched to Asheville during the Johnson and Sherman Armistice. On the 5th of May 1865, at Allman's Mills, in Haywood County, he had another skirmish with the Federals under Col. W. C. Bartlett, and on the 7th of May 1865, ascertaining that Gen. Johnson had surrendered, negotiated terms tavorable to his own command and the District, which were confirmed by Brig. Gen. J. G. Martin and Col. W. H. Thomas. This was the last regular surrender East of the Mississippi river. It will be remembered that Gen. Dick Taylor surrendered on the 4th of May 1865.

President Johnson's Message.

It will be seen that our Washington dispatches to-day, assures the public, that it is known that President Johnson will not abandon his position or policy, in his forth-coming message.

ELECTION OF SENATOR.—We were in error yesterday in stating that the General Assembly was obliged to make the election of Senator to-day. The failure to elect the first day by the Houses separately, obliges them to go in Convention and ballot together, until the election is affected.

TO CORRESPONDENTS.—The communication of "Craven" did not reach us in time to appear before the election of Senator.

PETERSBURG INDEX.—It is due to our excellent cotemporary, the Petersburg Index to state, that the condition upon which it obtained a copy of the Governor's message was, that it should not publish until after it had been informed of the organization of the General Assembly. It was so informed on Monday and issued the message on Tuesday morning.

The Chicago Republican after calling President Johnson a traitor, says that "General Sherman is a far more dangerous man than the President."

REMARKS OF
MR. CUNNINGHAM, OF PERSON,

On yesterday in the Senate, on Mr's resolution instructing the Judiciary Committee to enquire into the whole question of financial relief for the people.

Mr. Cunningham said, before this resolution goes to the Committee to whom I propose to refer it, I desire to say a few words in regard to its purpose. It is my privilege to represent an honest and generous constituency who are in debt without immediate means to pay, and that by no fault of theirs; and this, I suppose is the case with all communities in the State. The sections that owned large numbers of slaves are now in a worse condition than others, and it is easy to understand why these sections are more in debt, and how disastrous it would be in such places to undertake to force collections. In these regions, and indeed in the whole State, the absorbing question is, how are the greedy to be prevented from resorting to means that will result in universal bankruptcy and while we are devising schemes on this subject, honestly intended, we are met by a clause in the Constitution of the United States that seems to forbid every attempt to stay the collection of debts. The terms of this provision are very plain and very comprehensive; and yet it is obvious that its object was not oppression but to prevent it. At such a time as this, the best interests of the country demand forbearance and delay in the collection of debts; and my purpose is to have this whole subject thoroughly considered by men competent to the task, and their views presented to this Assembly. I desire that we have a report as to the constitutionality and justice of the ordinance of the Convention, on this subject, and if that measure is unconstitutional or oppressive to the honest debtor, that a better measure be suggested. The matter is one of the utmost moment, and in my heart I feel, that it is due to a suffering people, and indeed to the security and prosperity ofthe country, that we give to it our most earnest and anxious attention.

And here, permit me, sir, once for all, to define my position on this embarrassing question. It is, in my judgment, for the interests of the creditors, as a class, as well as of debtors, that there be no forced collections, unless in cases of fraud; and while the general prosperity of the State depends on forbearance in this matter, it would be a wrong, a gross wrong, to a large and honest class of our fellow citizens, to leave them at the mercy of the heartless speculators on the public distresses, if we can prevent it. These are exceptional times, and it is due to those whom war and public events have impoverished, that they be protected, if possible, from combinations to obtain the remnant of their property for a mere song. If there is a general attempt to collect debts by execution, all kinds of property will depreciate to a nominal value, and thousands and thousands of honest families will be sold out of house and home, and still left burdened with debt. If the property of the State is put up at auction and sold for cash, it will not pay a fourth of the endebtedness of the community, and the result will be a few men will own everything, and the majority of the people will be still in debt, and without property and without hope. It is easy for such a deplorable state of things to occur, nor would the probability of this general ruin, check the suicidal haste and greed of a foolish and remorseless class of men, to be found in all communities.

All good men, all honest men, are interested in preventing it; and for one while I am inflexibly opposed to repudiation, and devoted to that old fashioned honesty which is always the best policy, and the surest foundation of individual and of public propriety, I feel that it is due to those whom civil war and public calamities have impoverished, that every possible indulgence be extended to them. Give the people time and they will work out of their embarrassments—give them time, and allow them to labor with hope, and the energy which hope begets, and they will redeem their promises, the honor of the State will be saved, and from the wrecks which now surround us, the hand of diligence will cause to spring a new and smiling prosperity.

REMARKS OF
MR. LOGAN, OF RUTHERFORD,

On his resolution endorsing the Howard amendment.

Mr. Logan said, in substance, that this amendment had been very fully discussed before the people, that Congress would meet on Monday next, and should be informed what we intended to do in the premises. After tracing the history of the Constitution from its formation to the present time, adverting to the several amendments heretofore adopted; he said that the Constitution was professedly the work of the people. He subsequently defined the term "people" by the term "everybody." He argued that the 1st section of the Howard amendment did not differ from the Constitution of the United States as it now exists.

Mr. Waugh asked—if such was the case, what then was the necessity of adopting it?—Mr. Logan declined answering the question for the present, and said that the gentleman who troubled him would have ample opportunity of participating in the discussion. He denied that this section contained the doctrine of negro equality any more than the existing Constitution did.

He wanted the Howard amendment because he was opposed to negro equality. It gave the States the power to abridge the rights of any of their male citizens, but left this matter wholly to their option, as expressed by their representatives.

The adoption of this amendment, and the election of Representatives who could take the "test oath," would, he said, secure the admission of the States, as such action had already secured the admission of Tennessee. The main difficulty, in the whole matter, was, in his opinion, this: Leaders of the rebellion believed that under it they can never get pardon or hold office. It was in the power of the Southern States to send eighty-one members to Congress—more than a third of the whole number—and it required a two-thirds vote to pass any act over the President's veto. We are now, he said, without representation, and, yet refused to send Representatives to protect our interests.

He called for the yeas and nays on the resolution.

The Norfolk Virginian states that a subscription list was circulated in the Methodist Conference on Friday, for the purpose of raising funds to present Mrs. Jefferson Davis with a testimonial of affection. Quite a large amount was contributed. It is stated that a portion of the proceeds will be appropriated to the purchasing of necessary and comfortable furniture for the quarters assigned to President Davis in Carroll Hall at Old Point.

A train load of cotton from Memphis, en route for the North, came down the Southside road yesterday, and was promptly dispatched via Norfolk and Petersburg railroad to Norfolk, whence it will be shipped by steamer to its destination.—Pet. Index.

NORTH CAROLINA LEGISLATURE.

SENATE.

TUESDAY MORNING, Nov. 27.

The Senate was called to order at 11 o'clock A. M.

Prayer by the Rev. Mr. Hardie, of the Presbyterian Church.

The Journal of yesterday was read and approved.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES.

Mr. Wiggins, from the committee on Finance, to whom was referred the bill to prevent fraud on the revenue of the State, reported back the same, recommending that it do not pass. Also a resolution relative to the same subject, and asked to be discharged from its further consideration.

Mr. Robins, from the Judiciary committee, to whom was referred a resolution in reference to a portion of the public printing being executed at the Deaf and Dumb Institute, reported back the same, and asked to be discharged from its further consideration.

Mr. Cunningham, from the committee on propositions and grievences, to whom was referred a resolution relative to encouraging foreign immigration, made the following report:

That they have had the subject under consideration, and that they regard it as one of importance, and where the way is open, worthy of the serious attention of our people and authorities. The committee, however, are of opinion that the present is not a favorable time for the State to engage in this enterprise, unless it could do so without appropriations from the public treasury. In view of our embarrassed financial condition, and the unsettled state of political affairs, the committee do not feel at liberty to recommend any policy, which will commit the faith of the State to engagements which subsequent events, may compel her to abandon, and thereby impair her character, and possibly embarrass parties interested in such engagements.

HOUSE OF COMMONS.

TUESDAY, Nov. 27th, 1866.

The House was called to order at eleven o'clock A. M.

Prayer by Rev. J. M. Atkinson, of the Presbyterian church.

The Speaker announced Messrs. Woodard, Long and Williams, of Martin, as additional members of the committee on the Judiciary, and Mr. Westmoreland as an additional member of the committee on the Insane Asylum.

Mr. Black presented a petition from the President and Directors of the Cheraw and Coalfield Railroad Company, asking State aid to the extent of one million of dollars on such conditions as it may seem proper to impose, in the form of a subscription to the capital stock of said Company, to be paid by a transfer of a corresponding amount of the stocks and bonds of some of the finished roads in the State.

Messrs. Dargan and Jordan presented similar memorials (asking aid for this road) from citizens. Ordered to be printed and referred to the committee on Internal Improvements.

Mr. Long moved a suspension of the rules that the House might consider a bill for the relief of the people, reported back this morning from the Finance committee, with a recommendation that it do not pass.

Mr. L. addressed the House in support of the bill, which, he said, did not contemplate a repudiation of any portion of the State debt.—He urged the temporary abrogation of the Revenue law, (proposed in the bill) as the best mode of affording relief to the people of the State.

Mr. Latham, of Washington, inquired what would be done with moneys already collected under the existing law, and what necessity there was for its repeal, when it would be repealed by the Revenue bill to be prepared at the present session of the Legislature?

[The Reporter here understood Mr. Long as saying, substantially, that he favored, at the present time, the collection of no more revenue than was essential to keeping up the State government—paying its usual expenses.]

The question recurring the House refused to suspend the rules.

Mr. Waugh introduced a resolution to refer so much of the Governor's message as relates to the Executive Mansion and grounds to the committee on Public Buildings. Adopted.

On motion of Mr. Horton of Watauga, a message was sent to the Senate, proposing to raise a Joint committee on so much of the Governor's message as relates to the subject of weights and measures.

Mr, Baker, Hon. Geo. Howard, of Wilson.

Mr. Peebles, Gen'l Matt. W. Ransom of Northampton.

Mr. Russ, addressed the House in support of Mr. Pool's claims—announced that Mr. P. was opposed to the Howard amendment—lauded that gentleman's consistent conservatism and devotion to the Union, and said in concluding, that he deemed it wrong now to throw Mr. P. overboard, and send to the U. S. State, one who had been either more fiery, or more submissive.

Mr. Peebles, briefly set forth the claims of Gen'l Ransom and advocated his election.

Five consecutive ballots were then had.

Tuesday Evening, Nov. 27, 1866.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

OUR MARKET.—Beef plentiful, 8a15; Pork green 15 cts, good supply; Potatoes, sweet, 50 cts; Fowls, chickens, 15a30. Cotton coming in slowly in small lots, at 27a29 cts.

FEDERAL COURT.—Quite a number of persons are in the city from abroad, in attendance as witnesses and jurors on this Court.

AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY.—We have heard as yet of the arrival of but few persons to attend the Agricultural Society. We hope the number will be increased by the trains this evening.

MATRON OR HOUSEKEEPER.—The advertisement in our columns of a lady proposing for a situation as housekeeper, is from a source entitled to consideration. From what we hear, she would be a capital matron for a school, and possibly could take charge of a good family school. She has two children to provide for, her husband being compelled by his relations to the late war, to be separated from her in a distant country.

THE MOREHEAD ESTATE.—Several advertisements in our columns to-day are of importance relating to the estate of the late Gov. Morehead. Edgworth Seminary is for rent.

GOLD.—It is rumored here that a lump of gold has recently been found in Cabarrus County, weighing 100 lbs. Doubtful.

ARREST OF A HORSE THIEF.—About the 5th of August last two horses, stolen from Raleigh, N. C., were brought to this city by a white man named W. R. Willis, alias W. E. Wade. The thief was accompanied by a mulatto man. The animals were sold to Mr. E. H. Jackson, who had no suspicion of the character of the individual from whom he purchased. Mr. W. H. Crow, owner of one of the horses, telegraphed to this city, giving information of the robbery, stating that the parties had taken this direction.

The matter was placed in the hands of Lieut. Hendricks, who recovered the animals. The guilty parties, however, had left the city previous to discovery of the horses. Since that time Lieut. Hendricks has kept up a constant vigilance, and last Wednesday had the gratification of learning of his whereabouts. Officers Chapman and Hogan were dispatched in pursuit and arrested Willis alias Wade, at Orangeburg, brought him to this city and placed him in custody to await his trial.—Charleston Courier.

WE state yesterday that by the Atlantic Road alone 1927 bales had reached Newbern, and we ventured the statement that it was "little more than half" of the total quantity received. We were right, for it does not reach one-half. We may safely affirm that over 4,000 bales of new cotton have already been 'shipped' this year from Newbern.—Newbern Commercial

HEAVY FREIGHT.—The receipts of freight by the Atlantic & N. C. R. R. yesterday, were of the heavy character chiefly—such as 50,000 fect of lumber, fifty bales of cotton, &c. The road is now doing a good business in freight and passengers. Good management characterizes the road.—North Carolinian.

Intemperance is said to be alarmingly on the increase in Petersburg, and is attributable in a great measure to the facility with which intoxicating liquors can be procured there. The Index says: Since the war closed every man amongst us seems to want to make a fortune in the shortest possible time, and in order to do that, many of our tradesmen who heretofore never sold liquor, and others who, if they sold it at all, did so by the bottle or by the gallon, have undertaken to retail it by the drink, and now there's scarcely a retail grocery or shop in the city which has not its bar situated in the rear of the store or in the cellar, with regular bar keepers dealing out liquors mixed in any desirable manner. And this, too, in addition to the numerous regular bar-rooms scattered in profusion throughout the city.

AGRICULTURAL PROGRESS.—The Augusta Constitutionalist says:

"Deep ploughing, the accumulation of manures and their judicious distribution are not as scientifically and economically considered as they deserve to be. Returned European tourists, such a man, for example, as Wm. Gregg, Esq., of Graniteville, S. C., concur in admiration of the English system and English improvements with the plough. Up to a very recent date, immense plows drawn by a yoke of six oxen used to turn up the soil in a manner little known to our farmers. These plows went into the bowels of the earth and made even the poorest land do wonders. This system has been improved upon by the invention and application of the steam plow, which is now revolutionizing agriculture all over the continent.

By means of this plow from eighteen to twenty acres of land can be broken up daily. It runs five furrows, each to the depth of twenty inches, if desired. Speaking of this plow, the achievements of which he investigated, Mr. Gregg says it "tore the ground into ditches."—It is expensive, but can be had on long credit. One of the first class can be laid down in Augusta for $600. The magnitude of the sum will appal many, but it need not. In England the owner of such a plow hires it out to those who cannot afford the purchase individually.

The benefit of one such ploughing would be well worth the moderate charge. For several years there would not be the same requirement of steam ploughing, and the delighted earth would repay the expenditure four-fold. Why should we not share in the benefits of this great improvement? Will not some capitalists emulate George Peabody, or if that be too much to ask, cannot the planters combine by neighborhoods to purchase these plows for their common usufruct."

COTTON MANUFACTURE IN TENNESSEE.—The Nashville Gazette gives an encouraging picture of the founding and success of the cotton factories of Tennessee, which it tabulates as follows:

Number of mills	12
do spindles in use	14,000
do operatives	540
do persons deriving support	1,820
Aggregate gross value of annual manufactures	$1,030,000
Amount of capital invested	678,500

It states that a general agency is to be established at Nashville, through which sales are to be made and prices regulated.

Conference at Norfolk, &c.

FORTRESS MONROE, Nov. 26.

The Annual Conference of the M. E. Church, South, still continues in session in Norfolk, and its labor, it is thought, will consume the greater part of the week.

Several fishing schooners which recently came here from Greenport, were seized by the authorities for trading without license.

Washington Matters.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 26.

Our consul at Trieste reports the entire cessation of Cholera at that place.

It is not true that Jacob Thompson has obtained from President Johnson permission to return home.

No visiters were admitted to audience with the President to-day. He is closely applying himself to his forth-coming message.

It is no secret that he will adhere to his former position respecting the full restoration of the Southern States.

Hon. O. M. Roberts, Senator from Texas, arrived here last night. He reports the material interests of Texas flourishing, and the people generally in good spirits.

The steamer Rhode Island, the flag-ship of the Atlantic squadron, sailed to-day from Hampton Roads, to visit the stations on the Southern coast.

The revenue from imports during the past year, foot up $200,000,000. It is estimated that the amount this year will be $175,000,000, but that the receipts of goods will fall short.

The probability is, that the press will be furnished with copies of the message in advance of its delivery.

Claims on Great Britain, &c.

NEW YORK, Nov. 26.

Nothing definite has yet been received from the British government in relation to the claims of indemnity, growing out of the depredations committed on American commerce by the Alabama, and other privateers. The corrrespondence is still in progress. The present British ministry, however, show a better disposition than the former.

The provision house which failed to-day was that of Dehon, Clark & Bridges.

A large number of illicit distilleries were seized in Brooklyn yesterday.

A Washington dispatch states that Postmaster General Randall has finally agreed upon the postal treaty with Great Britain, whereby postages to and from are to be reduced to twelve cents, to be prepaid; each government to keep the money it gets.

NEW YORK, Nov. 27.

Papers by the Scotia speak of the indemnity question in the Alabama case, &c. The London Morning Herald advocates the consideration of the pending questions between the U. S. and Great Britain, even by arbitration if necessary.

The London Times says that her Majesty's government contemplates empowering a commission to enquire generally into the operations of the neutrality laws. And to report upon the possibility of amending them so as to bring them into more complete conformity with international obligations. This enquiry will not preclude future steps with regard to the adjustment of the Alabama claims, which are still under consideration by the government and must be entertained upon their own merits.

Much damage has been done by the flood in Lancashire and Yorkshire.

A subscription for the sufferers by the Quebec fire had been started in Liverpool.

The London list had reached 17000 pounds.

At the sitting of the Saxon Chamber of Deputies Dresden on the 14th inst., the State minister declared in the most positive manner that Saxony had concluded no alliance with Austria, before or during the war. Moore was frequently congratulated by friends, and the parents of the bride but, on the eventful eve, charming Miss Fannie was no where to be found. On the next day a bevy of carriages drove into town bringing "Fannie," now Mrs. Whitesides. She had given the old match-makers the slip—married the one she loved, but she was no more.

Special Notices.

A New and Grand Epoch in Medicine!

DR. MAGGIEL is the founder of a new Medical System. The quantitarians, whose vast internal doses enfeeble the stomach and paralyze the bowels, must give precedence to the man who restores health and appetite, with from one to two of his extraordinary Pills, and cures the most virulent sores with a box or so of his wonderful and all healing Salve. These two great specifics of the Doctor are fast superseding all the stereotyped nostrums of the day. Extraordinary cures by Maggiel's Pills and Salve have opened the eyes of the public to the inefficiency of the (so-called) remedies of others, and upon which people have so long blindly depended. Maggil's Pills are not of the class that are swallowed by the dozen, and of which every box full taken creates an absolute necessity for another. One or two of Maggiel's Pills suffices to place the bowels in perfect order, tone the stomach, create an appetite, and render the spirits light and buoyant! There is no griping, and no reaction in the form of constipation. If the liver is affected, its functions are restored; and if the nervous system is feeble, it is invigorated. This last quality makes the medicines very desirable for the wants of delicate females. Ulcerous and eruptive diseases are literally extinguished by the disinfectant power of Maggiel's Salve. In fact, it is announced that Maggiel's Billious, Dyspeptic and Diarrhœa Pills cure where all others fail. While for Burns, Scalds, Chilblains, Cuts and all abrasions of the skin, Maggiel's Salve is infallible. Sold by J. MAGGIEL, 11 Pine St., New York, and all Druggists, at 25 cts. per box.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

The Louisville Journal says: "The testimonials which Dr. Gardner presents to the public could never have been obtained, except by the display of great skill and learning in his profession. One thing especially commendable in the Doctor's practice is, that he will not attempt an incurable disease for the sake of a fee, but frankly tells the patient whether he can be cured or not. We cheerfully recommend Dr. Gardner to the attention of all our friends who may be suffering from diseases of the eye or ear.

VALUABLE PLANTATION FOR SALE!

ON THE SECOND THURSDAY IN DECEMBER, next being the 13th day of the month, I will sell to the highest bidder, upon the premises, that desirable

COUNTRY PLANTATION,

lately owned, and [illegible] by Miss Elizabeth Hinton, dec'd.

The tract is situated on Neuse River, six miles East of Raleigh, on the Tarboro' Road, adjoining the lands of David Hinton. It contains of land,—from THREE TO FOUR HUNDRED of which are cleared. About 100 acres are fine low grounds, not liable to over-flow. This is considered one of the best Cotton Plantations in the County, and the bottom land will always produce enough Corn to sustain it.

ELEVEN HUNDRED AND NINETY-FIVE ACRES

THE IMPROVEMENTS

consist of a handsome Dwelling House, containing seven rooms, located on a commanding site. There are three frame houses also on the premises with two rooms each, and all necessary out-houses, cabins, barns, gin house, carriage house, &c.

As this land will be sold on the liberal credit of only one-third cash, the balance payable in one, two and three years, a rare opportunity is afforded to parties wishing to purchase a first-class farm.

Personal security will be required, and title will be with-held until the last payment is made.

NOTE.—This Land will be divided into three tracts, the House-tract 600 acres, another tract of 250 acres, and another of 245, plots of which may be seen at my office above Creech's Store.

☞ Let all who have been given up by Doctors, and spoken of as incurable, read the following.

☞ Let all who can believe facts and can have faith in evidence, read the following:

Know all men by these presents, That on this, the Twentieth day of June, in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Sixty-Six, personally came Joseph Haydock to me, known as such, and being duly sworn, deposed as follows: That he is the sole general agent for the United States and dependencies thereof, for preparations or medicines known as MAGGIEL'S PILLS and SALVE, and that the following certificates are verbatim copies to the best of his knowledge and belief.

JAMES SMETTER,
L. S. Notary Public,
Wall Street, New York.

June 1, 1866.

DR. MAGGIEL:—I take my pen to write you of my great relief and that the awful pain in my side has left me at last—thanks to your medicine. Oh, doctor, how thankful I am that I can get some sleep. I can never write it enough. I thank you again and again, and am sure that you are really the friend of all sufferers. I could not help writing to you, and hope you will not take it amiss.

JAMES MYERS,
116 Avenue D.

This is to certify that I was discharged from the army with Chronic Diarrhœa, and have been cured by Dr. Maggiel's Pills.

WILSON HARVEY,
New York, April 7, 1865. 27 Pitt Street.

The following is an interesting case of a man employed in an Iron Foundry, who, in pouring melted iron into a flask that was damp and wet, caused an explosion. The melted iron was thrown around and on him in a perfect shower, and he was burnt dreadfully. The following certificate was given to me by him about eight weeks after the accident.

New York, Jan. 11, 1866.

My name is Jacob Hardy; I am an Iron Founder; I was badly burnt by hot iron in November last; my burns healed, but I had a running sore on my leg that would not heal; I tried Maggiel's Salve, and it cured me in a few weeks. This is all true, and any body can now see me at Jackson's Iron Works, 2nd Avenue.

J. HARDY,
119 Georick Street.

Extract from Various Letters:

"I had no appetite; Maggiel's Pills gave me a hearty one."

"Your Pills are marvelous."

"I send for another box, and keep them in the house."

"Dr. Maggiel has cured my headache that was chronic."

"I gave half of one of your pills to my babe for cholera morbus. The dear little thing got well in a day."

"My nausea of a morning is now cured."

"Your box of Maggiel's Salve cured me of noises in the head. I rubbed some of your Salve behind my ears and the noise left."

"Send me two boxes; I want one for a poor family."

"I enclose a dollar; your price is twenty-five cents, but the medicine to me is worth a dollar."

"Send me five boxes of your pills."

"Let me have three boxes of your Salve by return mail."

I have over 200 such Testimonals

As this, but want of space compels me to conclude

J. MAGGIEL, M. D.

P. F. PESCUD AGENT FOR RALEIGH, FOR Maggiel's Pills and Salve.

By this practical illustration of the advantages of Life Insurance, it is commended to the confidence and support of every one desirous of providing for surviving loved ones.

As an investment merely, a Life Insurance Policy is as safe an investment of funds as can be made.—The principal, generally, is not only many times in excess of the amount paid, but in a sound company it has no rival for security, and no species of Government bonds are a more desirable investment.
